

Dear Students, Parents and Guardians,

After the half-term break, Piano tuition will once again be available at St. Clare's. Sessions are open to all ages and abilities. Whether you've already performed a Chopin Piano Sonata to the whole school or you're playing along with Dua Lipa YouTube videos or a DIY Piano app at home, instrumental lessons will help you develop as a pianist and musician.

I am an experienced piano teacher and music educator, taking an holistic approach to piano teaching – developing students' skills as a musician, and not just a pianist. As a freelance musician I work across many genres, from orchestral and film music to musical theatre and pop. This is reflected in my approach to teaching, offering students the opportunity to study all genres of piano playing, and to be examined in that style with boards including ABRSM (Piano, Music Theory & Jazz), LSM (Piano) and Rockschoool (Piano, Keyboard & Music Theory).

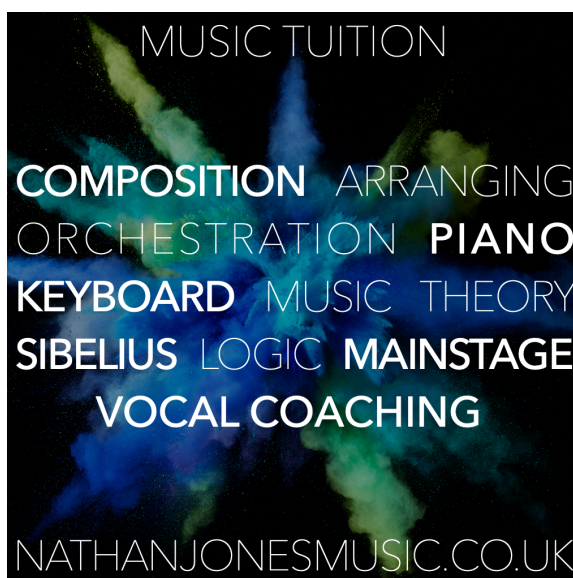

As well as Piano, I also offer tuition in other areas of music and music technology.

If you would like further information on piano and music lessons, or are interested in taking up or continuing lessons in November, please e-mail me at nathan@nathanjonesmusic.co.uk. Alternatively, please complete the form below and return it to Mrs Layland, and I will be in touch with further information.

Yours faithfully,

Mr Nathan Jones
